Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT
(RAO INDERJIT SINGH)

(a)&(b): Yes, Madam. Delhi Metro Rail Corporation Ltd. (DMRC) has informed that HUDA City Centre Metro Station has been remodelled to facilitate commuter movement as detailed below:

a) 6 entry and 10 exit Automatic Fare Collection (AFC) gates have been added to reduce waiting time;

b) 4 numbers of escalators have been provided to facilitate exit from the first floor;

c) To reduce congestion inside the station premises, Ticket Office Machines (TOMs) have been shifted outside and numbers of TOMs increased;

d) Dedicated entry and exit for passenger has been provided from ground level and concourse level respectively; and

(e) Lift no. 2, connecting concourse and platform no. 2 of the station has been programmed in such a manner so that it is available at concourse level for the convenience of commuters.

(c)&(d): DMRC informed that the revised plan has been implemented in consultation with Central Industrial Security Force (CISF).
